Job Title: Juvenile Probation Officer- Truancy Specialist

Reports to: Director of Family Court Probation

Summary

Acts as an arm of the Judiciary by performing the following duties: Conducts comprehensive delinquency investigations on assigned juveniles and reports findings and makes recommendations to the Court. Supervises a caseload of juvenile probationers specifically adjudicated for truancy or school-related offenses within the parameters of the Court's Community Probation Program and In-Home Care Guidelines, utilizing the principles of balanced and restorative justice. Maintains required documentation, reports, and contact information for all assigned cases.

Principal Duties & Responsibilities

1. Conducts a comprehensive delinquency investigation which shall include youth, family, school, employment and delinquent background, services received and risk assessments. Sources include interviews with youth and families, law enforcement, victims, school personnel, service providers and written records. Makes recommendations to the Court at initial dispositional hearing and subsequent hearings.
2. Develops a case plan with goals and objectives and reviews the plan with client and parents regularly. Coordinates services to clients with schools, counseling agencies and other service providers.
3. Fulfills all requirements set forth by the State of Michigan for in-home care program compliance including documentation, contacts with client, families and service providers, and written case updates.
4. Maintain community involvement by working closely with law enforcement, attending community and school events, forming partnerships with community and neighborhood groups, and working some non-traditional hours.
5. Responds to crisis and emergency situations and intervenes as necessary in aiding youth and families to resolve issues regarding school, employment, family relationships, etc.
6. Monitors compliance with the terms of probation and orders of the court. Arranges for probation violation and/or review hearings as necessary, initiates show cause notices and bench warrant process, and appears in court to testify as required.
7. Participates in and regularly attends all court hearings scheduled in individual cases, including any truancy-specific programming as developed by the Court.

Other Duties of the Job

Consults with foster parents, court staff, treatment program staff and others involved in providing services to youth. Monitors progress to discuss case status, case plan modifications and other related issues involving assigned youth.
