Kent County DPW announces temporary closure of Wealthy Street recycling and electronics drop-off station

*Residents encouraged to explore alternative recycling options before
March 26 closure*

Grand Rapids, Mich. – The Kent County Department of Public Works (DPW) today announced the temporary closure of its Wealthy Street recycling drop-off station and electronics drop-off site. The closure will begin 5 p.m. Friday, March 26 and last through the fall.

The closure is due to the construction of a new Kent County DPW administrative building on the Recycling and Education Center campus. It will not impact the processing of residential recycling delivered to the Recycling & Education Center by commercial recycling haulers or recycling dropped off at the Rockford Recycling Station at the North Kent Recycling & Waste Center.

“We understand this temporary closure may present an inconvenience for some residents using the drop-off station,” said Dar Baas, Kent County DPW director. “We continue to work to improve access to recycling for Kent County residents without curbside recycling where they live.”

Since 2010, the Kent County DPW has operated a recycling drop-off station at the Recycling & Education Center at 977 Wealthy St. SW in Grand Rapids to provide access to recycling for residents who may not have access to recycling services. Residents affected by the closure are encouraged to contact their local waste hauler for services and pricing.

For residents in apartments, condominiums or other multifamily dwellings impacted by the closure, Kent County is offering a partnership program for property managers to begin recycling services with a waste hauler. Contact Kent County DPW at recycle@kentcountymi.gov to inquire about this program.

Kent County DPW has created a list of alternative recycling options while this location is closed. Visit <http://www.reimaginetrash.org/wealthystdropoff> for alternative recycling options for paper, electronics and other recyclable materials.

Valley City Electronics Recycling works closely with Kent County DPW for electronic recycling and is offering residents the option to drop-off their electronics Monday through Friday from 7:30 am to 4:00 pm at its location on 32nd Street in Kentwood.

“We encourage residents to explore all the options for recycling, including bringing in their electronics so they can be refurbished or properly disposed of by our team,” said Dave Perry, general manager of Valley City Electronics Recycling.

Visit reimaginetrash.org for additional information on how and where to properly dispose of materials in Kent County.

Hi Rosmary

Please see attached bids for the cement pads to be installed for the recycling containers and the electronics trailer. The Casco Board is recommending Olson Bros. as their bid included all site prep and concrete sealer. This is a firm that has a good track record and as you can see all four bids are very close. Martin and Isom didn't include site prep. Bos had a premixed sealer that we were concerned wouldn't hold up as well.

Therefore, Casco is requesting the Solid Waste Committee approve County Recycling Funds be approve for this capital project and that Olsen Brothers are awarded the job.

Please let me know if you need anything else or my participation in the Solid Waste Meeting

Thank you for Your Consideration
Sincerely
Allan Overhiser, Supervisor
